

Summer Day Camp Descriptions:

Metamorphosis Monday: Take an adventure through a salmon's life cycle, explore flatfish transformation, and become a master of disguise using the power of camouflage. Salmon, Flatfish, and Crabs.

Tide Pool Tuesday: Life on the edge, between land and sea. Immerse yourself in a day in the life of Sea Stars, Crabs, Urchins, and Anemones. Discover strength and diversity, and find out what it takes to survive this action-packed habitat.

Whale Hello There Wednesday: Plunge into the mysteries of Alaska's Whales. Explore their epic journeys, playful communication, and creative teamwork of the giants of the sea. Orca, Humpback, and Beluga.

Invertebrate Thursday: Octopi your mind with ink-credible fun! An escape artist and master of disguise uncover the mystical life of the Octopus. Drift through the lifecycle of the planet's greatest survivor, the Jellyfish

Otterly Fun Friday: What you otter know about growing up an otter. From rivers to the ocean identify adaptation and experience how they learn, adapt, and grow. Get a special look at our Wildlife Response team and otter rescue.

Sealy Saturday: Explore the differences between seals and sea lions, discover the secret life of ice seals and what they mean to Alaskan natives. Get a glimpse at animal caregivers' training and care techniques.

Seabird Sunday: Dive into the captivating world of Puffins, Eiders, and Sea Duck. Take a peek into mating, nesting, and migration, and discover what makes alcids unique. Be a scientist for a day, and learn bird-watching and reporting techniques.